

Cynological Curriculum Vitae Ralf Brinkmann

First I met Boxers during my childhood, prospective I ever wished to own on.

In 1980 I got my first Boxer and started training and showing, in my first period I trained 13 different dogs for SchH, VPG, IPO, FH. Since 1983 I breed under the kennel name 'vom Okeler Forst', up to date 57 litters and 27 national and international Champions. In 1987 I became a judge. Meanwhile I judged in most European countries, in the USA, South Africa and Brazil.

Beside many International Shows and Championship Shows some very special highlights during my judging were the ATIBOX World Boxer Show 2002 in Wroclaw, Championship Show Rio de Janeiro 2003, Santarem 2004 - where my BOB Boxer 'Dismo di Soragna' became BIS in a big International Show-, World Dog Show 2013 in Budapest and, after 12 years in the same place again, ATIBOX World Boxer Show 2014 in Wroclaw.

From the early 1990s on I judged in Scandinavia many times and enjoyed it always that is why I was very glad about the invitation to judge in Norway 2015.
